TOP PRIORITY

CIRCULAR

It has been time and again informed to all the Principals/Directors of the constituent units in writing as well as during the various meetings that the tuition fees should not be accepted in cash. It has been brought to our notice that in some institutions, the fees are accepted in cash by the clerical staff. It is once again reiterated that the Principals and Directors of the constituent units should take all the care to see that NO CASH IS ACCEPTED by the clerical staff under any account.

If it is noticed that any of the clerical staff is accepting cash, necessary action should be taken immediately and the matter should be reported to the university immediately. It may also be noted that the Principal/Director of the constituent units will be held responsible for any lapses.
