

On the auspicious occasion of Janmashtami the interns along with the conservative and endodontic department did a small ceremony to celebrate the birth of Lord Krishna. It included a small Pooja followed by the breaking of the dahi handi accompanied with prasad! The ceremony was beautifully performed followed by the skillfull breaking of the handi by the faculty!

